Midday Supervisor

December 2023

Welcome from Our Children 1st MAT

Dear Applicant

Thank you for applying for a position to work at our Trust

At Our Children 1st we quite simply put children at the heart of everything we do. We work hard to give every child the very best start we can. We offer outstanding teaching and learning, exceptional care and support. We believe in fairness and equality of opportunity. We believe that every child has the right to an excellent education, irrespective of their background or the challenges they face.

All our staff, regardless of their role, work together to ensure we provide the best possible education and experiences for our children. We create a caring, supportive school where we strive to meet the individual needs of all our children and equip them for a successful future.

Therefore, if you are successful, you will be joining a dedicated team who work hard to ensure our school is a welcoming, positive and exciting environment to belong to.

Safeguarding

Our Children 1st are committed to Safeguarding and Promoting the Welfare of all children. We recognise that some children may be especially vulnerable to abuse e.g., those with Special Educational Needs, those living in adverse circumstances.

The Trust's Child Safeguarding Policy applies to all adults, including volunteers, working in or on behalf of the Trust.

Everyone who works with children has a responsibility for keeping them safe. No single practitioner can have a full picture of a child's needs and circumstances and, if children and families are to receive the right help at the right time, everyone who comes into contact with them has a role to play in identifying concerns, sharing information and taking prompt action.

Keeping Children Safe in Education 2023

Keeping children safe in education

The Trust pays full regard to DfE guidance 'Keeping Children Safe in Education 2023'. Anyone who works for the Trust, who is likely to be perceived by children as a safe and trustworthy adult (including volunteers and staff employed by contractors), is subject to appropriate checks in line with current legislation and best practice.

Safer recruitment practice includes scrutinising applicants, verifying identity and academic or vocational qualifications, obtaining professional and character references, checking previous employment history, social media checks and ensuring that a candidate has the health and physical capacity for the job. It also includes undertaking interviews and, where appropriate, undertaking checking details with the Disclosure and Barring Service.

Safeguarding Children & Young People

We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people. We expect all staff to share this commitment and to undergo appropriate checks, including enhanced DBS checks.

Accordingly, this post is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 and, therefore, all convictions, cautions and bind-overs, including those regarded as "spent" must be declared.

If you are currently working with children, on either a paid or voluntary basis, your current employer will be asked about disciplinary offence, including those related to children or young people (whether disciplinary sanction is current or time-expired), and whether you have been the subject of any child protection allegations or concerns and if so the outcome of any investigation or disciplinary proceedings. If you are not currently working with children, but have done in the past, that previous employer will be asked about these issues.

Where neither your current or previous employment has involved working with children, your current employer will be asked about your suitability to work with children.
